

Education

- 2017 Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary, Master of Arts in Church History
summa cum laude
- 2007 Covenant College, Bachelor of Arts in History
cum laude

Professional

- 2021-present Center for House Church Theology, Managing Director
- 2017-present China Partnership, Content Director

Peer-Reviewed Journal Articles

- “Harriet Newell’s Usefulness and the Language of Motivation in the Missionary Wife Memoir from 1814-1842,” Journal of Ecclesiastical History (revise and resubmit)
- “Eschatologically ‘Walking the Way of the Cross’ in Wang Yi’s Theology of Church and State,” International Journal of Public Theology (revise and resubmit)
- “‘Favored as We Are’: Early Protestant Missions, Cultural Imperialism, and the Liberating Power of the Bible,” Priscilla Papers 30, No. 4 (Autumn 2016)

Books

- Wang Yi and others. Faithful Disobedience: Writings on Church and State from a Chinese House Church Movement. Hannah Nation and J.D. Tseng., eds. Downers Grove, IL: IVP Academic, 2022 (forthcoming in December)
- Faith in the Wilderness: Words of Exhortation from the Chinese Church. Hannah Nation and Simon Liu, eds. Bellingham, WA: Kirkdale Press, 2022
- Grace to the City – Studies in the Gospel from China. S.E. Wang and Hannah Nation, eds. Metuchen, NJ: China Partnership, 2019

Peer-Reviewed Chapters

- “Pursuing Textual Community with a Chinese House Church Movement.” In Practicing Hope Missions and Global Crises, Evangelical Missiological Society Series, No. 30, ed. Marcus Dean, Scott Moreau, Sue Russell, and Rochelle Scheuermann. Littleton, CO: William Carey Publishing (forthcoming)
- "Grace, Suffering, and the City in the Theology of a Chinese House Church Movement." In Practicing Hope Missions and Global Crises, Evangelical Missiological Society Series, No. 28, ed. Jerry M. Ireland and Michelle L. K. Raven. Littleton, CO: William Carey Publishing, 2020.
- Brent Fulton, Hannah Nation, Xiyi Yao. “China.” In World Christian Encyclopedia, 3rd Edition, ed. Todd Johnson and Gina Zurlo. Edinburgh: Edinburgh University Press, 2019.

Encyclopedia Entries

- “Hopkins, Samuel.” American Religious History: Belief and Society through Time, Volume 1, The Colonial Era to the Civil War, ed. Gary S. Smith. Santa Barbara, CA: ABC-CLIO, 2020.
- “Missions to Native Americans.” American Religious History: Belief and Society through Time, Volume 1, The Colonial Era to the Civil War, ed. Gary S. Smith. Santa Barbara, CA: ABC-CLIO, 2020.

Reviews

- “Review: Sarah Osborn’s Collected Writings by Catherine A. Brekus,” Reading Religion (January 25, 2018), readingreligion.org
- “Review: Women in Christian Traditions by Rebecca Moore,” Reading Religion (November 7, 2016), readingreligion.org

Presentations

- “Pursuing Textual Community with a Chinese House Church Movement,” Communication(s) and Mission (Evangelical Missiological Society National Conference), Online, September 17, 2021.
- “Walking the Way of the Cross in Wang Yi’s Theology of Church and State,” Christian Doctrine Study Group (Tyndale Fellowship Conference), Online, July 2, 2021.

- “‘He Will Make Me Peculiarly Useful’: Tracing Harriet Newell’s Language of Usefulness in the Missionary Wife Memoir,” Oral, Print, and Digital Culture in World Christianity and the History of Mission (Yale-Edinburgh Conference 2021), Online, June 24, 2021.
- [in absentia] “Grace, Suffering, and the City in the Theology of a Chinese House Church Movement,” Mission Amid Global Crisis (National Evangelical Missiological Society Conference at the International Linguistics Center), Dallas, TX, September 13, 2019.
- “Converted to Usefulness: Narrative Patterns and Theological Context in the Memoirs of American Missionary Wives from 1814 to 1842,” Ways of Knowing: Graduate Conference on Religion (Science, Religion, and Culture Program at Harvard Divinity School), Cambridge, Massachusetts, October 27, 2017.

Affiliations

- Research Associate, Center for the Study of World Christianity, Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary, 2018-present
- Fellow, Tyndale Fellowship, Cambridge, UK
- Evangelical Missiological Society (EMS)

Awards and Honors

2017	Church History Divisional Award for Scholastic Achievement Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary
	Thesis: Converted to Usefulness: The Contextual Significance of Narrative Patterns in the Memoirs of American Missionary Wives from 1814 to 1842
2016	1st Place, “Truth Be Told” Student Paper Competition Christians for Biblical Equality International
	Paper: “‘Favored as We Are’: Early Protestant Missions, Cultural Imperialism, and the Liberating Power of the Bible”
2015-2016	The Dr. David F. Wells Scholarship for Teaching Ministry Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary
2003-2007	Presidential Scholar